Collect for the Baptism of Christ Heavenly Father, at the Jordan you revealed Jesus as your Son: may we recognize him as our Lord and know ourselves to be your beloved children; through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Theme Verse

We have a new theme verse, not a verse for the year but a verse for a season. Please note it, think about it and maybe even memorise it! It's good to fill our memory banks with God's word.

In Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.

Romans 12.5

Prayer Focus Those whose work is unfulfilling, stressful or dangerous

Mission partners Stand by Me

> Ladies' Breakfast The next ladies' breakfast will be on Saturday 2 February, starting at 8.30am. The speaker will be Kirsty McGhee, the families worker at Nailsea Methodist Church. Tickets and invitation cards available at all Sunday services.

> Café Create Our live-lounge, fair-trade, café-bar, open-mic, run-out-of-adjectives event will be back next week on Friday 18 January. Headline singer/guitarist Al Kirkpatrick, story from Ed Sheffield and some poems from Steve Tilley. Doors open at 7.30 pm. Live from about 8.15pm. Curfew 11.00 pm. This is an event you can drop in to for an hour. You don't have to come for the whole time. Headline acts are normally on between (roughly) 9.15 and 10.15.

> Volunteers welcomed As a church we run a wide variety of activities which depend for their success on our lovely, much-valued volunteers. Thank you to those who have recently signed up to drive housebound people to Pop-In. If you've been thinking about volunteering, for that and any other role, don't assume you are not needed. The more the merrier! Your offer of help could provide an overstretched person with some valuable free time. So keep the offers coming! Just let the office know and we will pass the message on.

> Films4U The next film evening at Nailsea Methodist Church will be Friday, 25 January at 7.30pm. Abdul Karim arrives from India to participate in Queen Victoria's golden jubilee. The young clerk is surprised to find favour with the queen herself. As Victoria questions the constrictions of her long-held position, the two forge an unlikely and devoted alliance. Watch the film—have refreshments—join the discussion.

John Gillmore Many of you will have known John Gillmore who was a GP in Nailsea for many years and who worshipped here at HT with his wife Maureen during the 1980s. Sadly, John died suddenly on 15 December. There will be a thanksgiving service for him towards the end of the month: details to follow.

We are getting a new photocopier! But this means we will be without any photocopier/printer facilities from Monday 14 to Wednesday 16 January . Please bear with us while the new system is installed.

CAP debt centre thanks The centre manager writes: 'I just wanted to pass on many expressions of thanks that I have received from clients for the Christmas hamper and presents. One client came to his budget visit proudly wearing his Christmas jumper! Another said he would hide his Christmas goodies before his son ate it all before Christmas; another said he loved the jumper. Everyone has been so appreciative, so please pass on their/my thanks to the congregations who contributed. Many are overwhelmed with the generosity shown.'

Emails for Ruth Jolly Ruth is continuing to use her general email address ruth.jolly.ht@gmail.com as she's not going to be working in the office long term. Emails sent to her old htnailsea address will bounce! If in doubt, use the office address, welcome@htnailsea.org.uk

Office Hours The opening hours are now 9am–12pm, Monday–Friday. Staff may be working in the office at other times; please do not interrupt them. If you need an appointment outside these times, please speak to James.

The Marriage Course is a series of seven sessions designed to help couples build a strong relationship.

On The Marriage Course, you are seated at your own table for two. Each session consists of a meal, a practical talk and a time for private discussion between you and your partner. There is no group work or sharing required.

We're pleased that Ian, Helen and the team will be running the course, starting on 5 February. Please sign up via the church office or contact Ian Wills. For more info see www.htnailsea.org.uk/themarriagecourse or phone the office.
